

I HAVE A FINANCIAL AID OFFER. NOW, WHAT?

Congratulations!! Your financial aid offer for the 2022-23 academic year is available on Self-Service.

- Register for classes if you haven't already done so.
- You do not need to do anything on the payment deadline date. The actual financial aid funds are not applied to your charges until after your attendance is verified.
- Remember to drop your classes if you decide not to attend. You must drop the classes yourself via Web Advisor. You now have a valid financial aid offer in place. Therefore, you will not be dropped automatically for nonpayment.
- All Wake Tech students must review and either accept or reject the Financial Aid Terms and Conditions. If you are unsure if you completed it, log into Self-Service and check for any incomplete documents.
- If you choose to reject the Terms and Conditions, you will not have access to your funds to charge in the bookstore.

Books

- You will need a Wake Tech ID to purchase books using your financial aid in the campus bookstore.
- Bookstore purchases are allowed as follows:

The 2nd disbursement is released when you have completed 50% of the loan period.
- All first time Wake Tech loan borrowers must complete the following at <https://studentaid.gov>:
 - Online Entrance Loan Counseling
 - Master Promissory Note
- You must be actively enrolled in 6 credit hours when any portion of a loan is disbursed.
