A Message From Dean Micheal McLamb

Dear Veteran and Dependent Students,

We are excited to welcome you to the Wake Tech Family! Your service, sacrifice, and resilience—whether as a veteran or a family member—deserve recognition and support. This newsletter is our way of staying connected with you, providing essential updates, valuable resources, and exciting opportunities and highlighting outstanding students who are making a difference.

You have already given so much to our country—now it's our turn to support you. Stay tuned, get involved, and let's make the most of this journey together! Thank you for your service and sacrifice.

Meet Our Veteran Care Team

"The team has been created to provide specialized advising and coaching support for military-connected students – veterans, spouses of veterans or dependents of veterans – who plan to enroll or are currently enrolled at Wake Tech."

WE APPRECIATE YOUR FEEDBACK

ALERTS!

Post 9/11 GI Bill Benefits

As a recipient of Post 9/11 GI Bill (Chapter 33) benefits, we want to remind you that the Bibliu Textbook Fee is NOT covered by Chapter 33. Chapter 33 recipients receive a book stipend directly from the VA so the textbook is not billable by our office.

Request For Benefits Form (816)

Students, if you would like to use your benefit please remember to submit your form 816; It is required for each semester you wish to use your benefit. If there is no form 816 on file, your enrollment will not be certified to the VA.

SPOTLIGHT!

We are proud to recognize the dedication, sacrifice, and service of our veteran and dependent students and staff. Their academic achievements and contributions to the community and workplace deserve acknowledgment and celebration. Through our highlights, we ensure that their hard work and commitment do not go unnoticed.

April's student spotlight: Michele Pham

Michele will graduate this semester with an Associate in Applied Science in Cybersecurity, all while serving over three years as a dedicated Records Assistant in the Military & Veteran Services Department. Her hard work, professionalism, and commitment have made a lasting impact, and we wish her continued success in all she pursues.
