

LHC STEM Speaker Series

The purpose of the Speaker Series is to expose students to wide variety of STEM career options, demonstrate real-world application of classroom concepts, and to connect with STEM professionals.

All talks will be at 2:00 p.m.

AUG

ELIZABETH GARDNER

A METEOROLOGIST with WRAL, will talk about why science is a great field to go into and what it takes to actually land a job in science.

Southern Wake Campus
Building D 221

Northern Wake Campus
Building D 370

22

SEPT

JOSEPH DOUGHNEY

A professional ENGINEER with CDM Smith, will discuss what life is like for an electrical engineer in a consulting/design firm.

Northern Wake Campus
Building D 370

26

Southern Wake Campus
Building D 221

OCT

TYLER ALLEN

A postdoctoral fellow at Duke University studying CANCER BIOLOGY, will discuss his research and how he was able to be named to Forbes top 30 under 30.

Southern Wake Campus
Building D 221

Northern Wake Campus
Building D 370

31

NOV

NICOLE GATACHALIAN

A MICROBIOLOGIST with Pfizer, will discuss what life is like for a scientist in a major pharmaceutical company and her tips for success.

Northern Wake Campus,
Building D 370

28

Southern Wake Campus
Building D 221