BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Business Administration: General Business Administration Degree - A25120A

-Day, Evening, and Online

The Business Administration curriculum is designed to introduce students to the various aspects of the free enterprise system. Students will be provided with a fundamental knowledge of business functions, processes, and an understanding of business organizations in today's global economy.

Course work includes business concepts such as accounting, business law, economics, management, and marketing. Skills related to the application of these concepts are developed through the study of computer applications, communication, team building, and decision making.

Through these skills, students will have a sound business education base for lifelong learning. Graduates are prepared for employment opportunities in marketing, management operations, and some graduates have started up their own small businesses.

Customer Service Certificate - C25120B

-Day, Evening, and Online

This certificate provides a broad foundation of communication and interpersonal skills designed to prepare the individual for customer contact roles within a business organization. Employment opportunities include customer service representative, customer services manager, consumer relations credit analyst, credit card specialist, credit and collections specialist, retail sales, accounts control analyst, administrative assistant, authorizations analyst, and telephone sales representatives in both production and service-oriented businesses.

Entrepreneurship Certificate - C25120C

-Day, Evening, and Online

This program enables students to recognize business opportunities and develop a business plan for the purpose of securing financing for an entrepreneurial start-up as well as to understand how to effectively operate a small business. Students will learn practical skills and some of the best business practices in establishing and operating a business.

Business Core Certificate - C25120D

-Day, Evening, and Online

This certificate provides students who are earning the Business Administration A.A.S., Business Administration/Human Resources Management A.A.S., and/or Associate in Art two-year degree, or simply to improve their skills in a specific area, to earn a certificate comprised of our Business Core courses. In as little as one semester, one can earn a certificate that validates an area of expertise, which can set an individual apart in the interview and selection process. If pursuing an Associate in Art degree or transferring to a four-year university, all of these classes will qualify to transfer.

Leadership Certificate - C25120F

-Day, Evening, and Online

This certificate is designed to be an overview of the major functions of leadership and management with an emphasis on critical thinking. Emphasis is placed on exploring the theories and techniques of leadership and teamwork coupled with the management principles of planning, organizing, controlling, directing, and communicating.

Students will be able to identify and analyze a personal philosophy and style of leadership and integrate these concepts in various practical situations using moral and ethical judgments honed during this program. Upon completion, students should be able to work as contributing members of a team utilizing these functions of leadership and management.

Career Success Certificate - C25120G

-Day, Evening, and Online

This certificate is designed to help students develop the knowledge and skills they need to make the successful transition from college to career. The program includes courses on managing personal finances, ethics, successful communication, and interpersonal skill development, as well as a course in business. Together, these courses address the "employability skills" that are in high demand from employers today. A student will need to be sure that they are ready to find and succeed in a great job with this professional transition toolkit.

Public Administration Certificate - C25120P

-Day, Evening, and Online

This certificate is designed to be an overview of the skills needed to be successful in a career in public administration. Focus is placed on ethics, decision-making, forming strong work relationships, communication, developing public policy, and other government functions to be a successful public administrator in government and/or non-profit organizations.

Business Administration: Global Business Management Degree - A25120G

-Day, Evening, and Online

Global Business Management (A.A.S degree) is a concentration within the Business Administration curriculum. It is designed to meet the demands of today's international economy. Businesses today are truly interconnected and working in business may require an understanding of different cultures as businesses often operate outside of the United States. By learning key business concepts as well as global literacy skills, students will be prepared for employment opportunities in government agencies, financial institutions, and large to small business or industry. Skills related to the application of these concepts are developed through the study of computer literacy, communication, team-building, and decision-making.

Critical thinking, project and problem solving skills are emphasized in the program course work. Because the degree requires the general study of business and management as well as global literacy, students begin their coursework with basic business concepts. The degree is fully online and can be completed in four full-time semesters.

International Business Certificate - C25120GB

-Day, Evening, and Online

This certificate is intended to provide students with a better understanding of how businesses are continually globally connected. Coursework includes a basic understanding of business, as well as understanding business from an international perspective, how international trade impacts business, importing and exporting, the economics of international businesses, and how marketing is impacted by delivering products and services to and from different parts of the world.

Business Administration: Human Resources Management Degree - A25120H

-Day, Evening, and Online

Human Resource Management (HRM) is the organizational function responsible for creating and supporting the systems that are used to effectively manage an organization's employees. HRM managers, professionals and support staff work in areas such as compensation, benefits, staffing and training.

The Business Administration / Human Resources Management curriculum prepares students to perform these roles in organizations of varying size and type and, depending on individual and organizational factors, roles can be performed at the administrative support, individual contributor / professional or managerial level.

Critical thinking, project and problem solving skills are emphasized in the program course work. Because the degree requires the general study of business and management as well as HRM, students are prepared to begin careers in both disciplines. The degree is fully online and can be completed in four full-time semesters.
